ANNUAL MEETING OF GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

Reorganization of the Crow's Nest Pass Golf and Country Club took place at a largely attended meeting held at the Greenhill hotel here last week.

The officers elected for the year are: G. A. Visar, Blairmore, honorary president; George Pattinson, Coleman, president; C. Emmerson, Bellevue, and J. H. Farmer, Blair-more, vice-presidents; Frank J. Smith, Hillcrest, secretary-treasurer; W.
Stevenson (Hillcrest), J. R. Smith (Blairmore) and J. A. McLeod (Coleman), executive committee; J. B. Wilson, Blairmore, club captain; C. Emmerson and J. H. Farmer, grounds committee.

Fees were fixed for the season at:
couple $20, individual gentleman $21, individual lady 20; Juniors and high school children at special rates.

The financial statement showed the club to be in good condition financially. In the past few years, many improvements have been made to the course by the West Canadian Collieries, Limited, and indications are that the company, who own the land, will this year lay out a water service on the principal fairways, with numerous connections for hose service, pipes for the purpose being already provided.

FORMER BLAIRMORE BOYS DOING WELL

Among the numerous comments in Seattle papers, we note the following regarding Dave Kemp and Jollett Houbreg, goalie and defence, respectively, with the Seattle Packers:

"The skipper was ably abetted by several of his team-mates, notably Johnny ("Giraffe") Houbreg, the big 6-10 who played a vital role in game at defense; Dave Kemp, the kid goalie, who kicked pucks aside with artistry and abandon all evening; and Pete Bellefeuille, the French-Candian rightwinger, who twice accepted Stuart's passes for well-earned goals."

"Seattle's goal had had several narrow shaves from close-in shots that Kemp handled with brilliancy."

"Johnny Houbreg was an entire defence all by himself. Dave Kemp played a sensational game in Portland and made the fans quiet down about the 8 to 1 betting he took on the last trip there."

"Seattle's classy goalie is often called 'Keep 'Em Out Kemp,' and he certainly earned that distinguished name with his all round good playing during the season. Dave right now has more shut-outs to his credit than any goalie in the league, and has had less goals scored against him than either the great Perry (Stonewall) Jackson or Airtight Andy Akenshead.
Dave has had no less than twelve shut-outs this season."

parative Education," by Sandiford.

Harry L'ney died at Michel on weeks illness. The remains were laid to rest on Tuesday. He is survived

Mrs. Frank Winters, of Corbin. He was an old timer and for many years had been in the employ of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company.

FORMER PASS RESIDENT PASSES AT EDMONTON

Old timers of this district will respect to learn of the death of John the age of fifty-seven years.

bered as formerly connected with the West Canadian Collieries, Ltd., at Lyle and Bellevue, and later with the Franco Canadian Collieries, Ltd., at Frank. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Ellen, Jessie and Roberta, and one son, John, all of Edmonton; his mother, Mrs. John S.
MacDonald, and three sisters, Mrs.
Andrew Reed, Mrs. Murdoch McKenzie and Miss Henrietta MacDonald, all of Westville, Nova Scotia.

The remains were forwarded to Westville, Nova Scotia, where interment took place on Saturday, March 7th.

DRUMHELLER DISTRICT MINES SIGN CONTRACTS

At a conference of mine operators and representatives of the United Mine Workers of America, District
18, held at Calgary recently, a contract respecting the working conditions in the Drumheller coal mining area was arranged and signed by both parties.

The contract will be renewed for a period of twelve months from March 31st, 1931, a shorter period than the last contract. It is based on the old scale of working conditions. Owing to the unsettled condition of the industry, it was thought advisable that a shorter period contract should be made, as both sides believe that by next year the coal industry outlook will be much improved.

Representatives from the following companies were present at the conference: Midland Coal Mining Company, Thomas Coal Company,
Newcastle Coal Company, Alberta
Black Coal Company, Peasehead Coal Company, Great West Coal Company and the Western Gem Coal Company.
The United Mine Workers of America were represented by President
Robert Livett, secretary-treasurer A.
J. Morrison, Jas. Conroy, M. Winship, Frank Reid and George Moore.

The most amazing picture ever made—

The greatest thrills ever put on the screen—

The battle of man against a monstrous thousands of feet high—

"The White Peril of Pitz Palu" And these astonishing thrills described by the voice of Graham Mc-Namee, famous N.B.C. ace and Talking Reporter of the Universal Newspaper Network! Nothing like it ever before!

The terrifying sweep of the avantanches down the mountain side; the death-defying stunts of an aviator, slipping by in a racing tempo close to the mountain walls—

The descent into a glacier three hundred feet deep. The fight on the ledges, below which is an abyss of unfathomable depth—

All these thrills and many more are part of a poignant drama of love and sacrifice, heightened by the marvelous vocal dramatization by Mc-Namee.

film, which is coming to City

BACKACHE

Wonderful relief from pain

Backache is one of those wearying complaints which bind all their victims together, with a common bond of misery. And when any one suffers from backache finds a sure remedy, fellowship prompts the quick report of that discovery to others. Here a woman who has her friend to thank for knowledge of a remarkably successful treatment. Now gratitude compels her, in turn, to pass along the good news to you.

"I am writing to tell you of the great benefit I have received from Kruschen Salts. My friend, Mrs. H., had received so much benefit that she begged me to give Kruschen a trial, although at first I was doubtful, because I had tried so many things. At last, however, I tried some of her Kruschen, and, feeling hopeful, I purchased a bottle, and I can honestly say that before I had finished the bottle my backache was gone. I have suffered for years with kidney trouble and chronic headaches, and now to be free from the pain altogether is wonderful." (Mrs. C.)

FREE TRIAL OFFER

If you have never tried Kruschen—try it now at once!—We have distributed a great many bottles of Kruschen Salts, and it may be easy for you to prove our claim for you.

The contents of our regular 75c bottle together with a separate trial bottle—sufficient for about one week. Over the bottle is a card which, if you fill in, and return to us, we will send you a bottle of Kruschen Salts. This is a real trial offer. The regular bottle is still as good as new. Take it back. Your druggist is authorized to return your 75c. Immediately and without question. You have tried Kruschen. Now, if you are not cured, what good does it do? Manufactured by Dr. G. H. Kruschen, Ltd., Montreal, Quebec, Canada. Importers: McCullough Bros., Ltd., Toronto.

Feeding and Care Of Infants

Safe Rules To Follow In Order To Protect Health Of The Baby
(By John Burke Ingram.)

The breast-fed baby has a much better chance of life and health than a bottle-fed baby.

Almost every normal mother can nurse her infant if she is patient and determined to do so. In many cases it is not easy but in almost every case, as I have said, it is possible and a mother who loves her child should realize that the finest and best thing she can do for it is to feed it at her breast. Cow's milk is intended for the stomachs of little calves. Mothers' milk is the thing for human babies.

When the time comes to start putting baby on solid foods, there again, the advice of the doctor should be sought. This is such an important subject that I do not feel that I should generalize here. Now in conclusion, just let me sum up the points which we have given in this article, and possibly add a few more.

Babies need regular feeding times.
Babies need regular sleeping times.
Babies need much air and sunshine.
Babies need water to drink.
Babies need to be kept warm.
Babies need to be kept clean.
Babies should be nursed by the mother, if it is at all possible for the mother to do so.

Babies' food should be prescribed by the doctor; not by the neighbors.
Babies' food should not be changed too often.
Babies should have clean milk.
Babies' milk should be kept cold until wanted.

Babies should not use pacifiers.
Babies should not be kissed on the mouth.

Babies should be kept off the floor, out of drafts, and away from people who have colds.

It is important to know a sick baby from a well one.

It is important to get a doctor's advice early.

Teething is not a sickness.
The baby that is well fed, has regular habits and plenty of fresh air,

Does not often get sick, and if sick usually gets well quickly.
It is easier to "keep" your baby well than to "make" him well.

Friendly Relations

Proper Understanding Between Canada and United States Is Vital

Single occupation of the continent of North America could never have resulted as beneficially as did its division between Canada and the United States, said Col. Hanford Macdier, U.S. minister to Canada, in an address to the Canadian Club, Toronto.

Good relations and proper understanding between the two countries were vital, he declared, to all the world. Despite incidents "occasionally augmented by the politics or economic situation of the moment," there had been few conflicts of opinion.

"Out of early dissension," he said, had grown two great nations which had given the world "the best example of considerate neighborly behavior."

Does Not Appear Weak

Lightning Strikes Which Split Great Rocks Compel Respect

A 5,000,000-volt stroke of lightning having been caught and measured on an electric line in Arkansas, the scientists state that it is considerably weaker than machine-produced electricity.

This conclusion may satisfy electricians of note, but the ordinary man should beware of trifling with lightning when it is raging about. Strokes that split great rocks, hit and raze big buildings and wipe out herds of cattle, are quite capable of disposing of a mere man in astonishingly quick order.

Lightning is a natural force that compels respect.

THE USE AND ABUSE OF GOD'S GIFTS—TEMPERANCE LESSON

Golden Text: "Be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be filled with the Spirit."—Ephesians 5:18.

Lesson: Matthew 12:1-13.
Devotional Reading: Matthew 6:19-24.

Explanations and Comments

The Warning Against Covetousness, verses 12-21.—A certain rich man, so the parable of Jesus begins, whose fields yielded more than his barns would hold, propounded to himself this query, "What shall I do because I have not where to bestow my fruits?"

"God has provided barns for superfluous corn in months that hunger, limbs that shiver, homes where the orphaned and the widowed sit in want. To store in these treasure-houses is the luxury as well as the duty of wealth."

The rich man proceeded to answer his query: "This will I do; I will pull down my barns, and build greater. And I will say to my soul [some one observes that he was talking to his stomach under the impression that he was addressing his soul], Soul, thou hast much good laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, be merry." He does not say to it, "Now, my soul, let us study art, and music and literature." The finer instincts have gone; his feeling for God, his enthusiasm for humanity, he has so lived that at the end of his years he has lost the capacity to live. He has made a house of unmade a life."

"It is a shameful conception of wealth which regards it only as a means to ease and luxurious living. The ease it brings it, or should be, only the reward for the heavy responsibility it imposes. The man who is rich by reason of the great business he has built up, is accessible to the community for his honesty and usefulness of his service, to his hundreds of thousands of employees for such a conduct of the business as will assure them of their means of livelihood, to his own conscience for laborious and unselfish attention to the wearisome details of business management. Too often the loss of leisure, health, and happiness is the penalty he pays for the luxuries he enjoys."

The rich fool made three mistakes: he mistook his body for his soul; he mistook time for eternity; and he mistook himself for God, the Ruler of all destinies.—James Orr. God said unto him, "Thou foolish one, this night is thy soul required of thee; and the things which thou hast prepared, whose shall they be?"

The Parable Of Faithful and Unfaithful Servants, verses 35-40.—Watch eagerly for the coming of the King, like servants at a lord who, with lamps burning, await his coming in the night time. "To the spirits"

"I do," said Sonny suddenly. "I'll buy you a new pie if you want one." Halliday laughed, and arose.

"I rather think my digestion won't stand for it," he replied. "And besides, I must go home and get ready for my guest. I'll come back later and find out what you hear from the new Mrs. Hastings. Just now Julie's waiting for my orders. It's fine to see this man of yours about again, isn't it?"

He turned away, while Sonny slid down the steps to join him, slipping his little hand into James Halliday's as confidently as he would have put it into Nick's.

"I got a oven where I bake 'em," he said sociably. "Daddy made it. Daddy can make anything. I'll show you 'fore you go home."

"Gay," murmured Nick softly, "you ought to have seen Halliday's face when the kid offered him that pie! I don't believe he ever played in his life—or if he did he's forgotten how. But it's fine of him to do so much for that little girl."

Gay didn't answer. She was watching James Halliday bending above the pile of stones that was Sonny's oven. In the silence she heard her little boy explaining: "You put 'em there first, an' then brown 'em on the tops, same as Mommy does, only we can't have matches. Daddy says mud pies don't need matches. He says they're 'ficious that-a-way. Some day when you get time I'll let you make 'em."

"Thanks," said James Halliday.

for ANY CHILD

WE can never be sure just what makes a child restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as your child has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of cold. Sometimes constipation, or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly; if it doesn't, you should call a physician.

a young girl wants—and she's still a girl, you know, in spite of her little family."

"I think you might give her something now and then, Mary. Gay's not the sort who would take offense. Can't you pretend you got them for yourself and they were—well—too small or something?"

Mary Maxwell glanced down at her generous proportions, and smiled at L. husband's naive suggestion. "I fear, my dear, that Gay would see through a subterfuge like that. Johnny, do you suppose old Mr. Bartlett gives her anything?"

"It wouldn't surprise me; though clothes are the last item he would notice."

"I don't know. Those days he was here with the babies he noticed everything. He's a wonderful old man. I wish he'd give Gay an allowance."

"Well, I don't," John Maxwell spoke with decision. "There's nothing better for a man than having to scratch gravel to provide for his wife and children. In my opinion Nick's marriage has been the making of him. Not that he wasn't all right before, but he needed bait, and Gay provides that in just the right amount. I shouldn't want Simeon Bartlett to do too much for them."

"Well," sighed Mary, with a thought for the days when she herself had longed for the unattainable, "I suppose you're right, and possibly Mr. Bartlett agrees with you. I feel sure there's nothing he wouldn't do for them if he thought best."

This was true. It sometimes tore Simeon's heart not to lift all Gay's financial burdens. Only his shrewd good sense kept him from doing it. He had, however, taken care of the bills incurred by Nick's illness, saying when Gay protested, "It's only a loan, dear. Better owe me than the doctor. He needs it more'n I do; and Nick can pay me back any time it comes handy."

"But I've the hundred dollars you gave me, Uncle Sam. That'll pay some of it. I can't go into debt to anyone, you know, and spend the money for silly clothes."

"I ain't askin' you to spend it for silly clothes, dearie. Clothes ain't silly if they make a woman look right to her man. It ain't often I give a present and tell folks what they got to do with it. That ain't no way to give; but this is different. Run along now, and do your shopping. If you don't, I'll do it for you. But there's a knowin' what outrageous flimflams I might buy."

Hence the smart little gown that had caught Mary Maxwell's approving eye, and which also caught Nick's when Gay appeared at the bank that afternoon.

"Where'd you get it?" he questioned through his little window, for once content with the fact that Sonny was begging for admittance. "You look a peach. I bet you've overdrawn our account—and I don't care a darn if you have. Here there weren't so many people round here I'd—"

"No love making allowed in banking hours," came from the next cage, as Johnny Symmes caught the drift of Nick's remarks. "How do you manage to get him going like that after all these years, Gay?"

Gay laughed. "The recipe's simple. Get a new gown and spring it on your man unexpectedly. You tell that to Flora."

"Notlin' doin'," said Johnny, smiling broadly. "Flora doesn't need any urging to buy new gowns. Run along, Gay. We need the services of our paying teller, and he's still spellbound. Not that I blame him. You look a regular corker this afternoon."

2 cups flour
4 eggs
4 tablespoons Magic Baking Powder
1/2 cup milk
2 tablespoons sugar

Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Cut the hard, cold shortening into them with a knife, using a quick, short, chopping motion, or reduce the hard cold fat to tiny particles with a pastry blender or a steel-pronged fork. When the mixture resembles a very coarse meal, add the liquid, mixing quickly and lightly. Turn out the dough on a slightly floured board, pat it down lightly or roll it to a thickness of about one inch. Shape with a small cutter or cut in squares with a floured knife. Dip the small lumps of sugar into syrup from canned or fresh raspberries... Press a lump into each biscuit... forcing it well down into the dough so that it will not run down the sides when melted.

Place the biscuits on a greased pan or baking sheet and bake in a very hot oven, 450° F., 12 to 15 minutes.

To Discuss New Calendar

League Of Nations Will Debate Question This Year

A serious effort is to be made by the League of Nations at Geneva this year, to reform the calendar, and bring about thirteen months of twenty-eight days each. Our present calendar has been working since 46 B.C., and there are many advocates who declare it has outlived its usefulness for modern needs. There will be a preliminary conference at Geneva, and then a general one to discuss the issue after which the governments of the world will be appealed to. Indeed, it is a most revolutionary change contemplated after 1977 years' use of the present calendar.

Soviet Farm Movement

Development Of Farms To Be Intensified In Russia

Soviet Russia is going "back to the farm," according to figures just issued by the government. During the last ten days in January and the first ten in February, a total of 726,000 families joined the collective farms, the figures show. This migration is the greatest in history. Development of these farms has always been the backbone of the Soviet movement.

Most of the families who have appeared to join the movement came from the Ukrainian Republic, the North Caucasus, the upper and lower Volga and the German republic. They were expected to move to the farms gradually during the spring in time to get next season's crops planted.

The Well-Dressed Italian

Tights and cylinders are required this season at all big Italian social or governmental functions in the daytime. Invitations, beautifully engraved, are going around with the words "Tights with cylinders are obligatory" in the lower left corner. "Tights" referred to the close fit of the English morning coat. And the cylinder is a top hat.

WHY ARE "DUDS"?

Every high school has its quota of so-called "duds," pupils who do not measure up to the standard set by high school accomplishment. In most cases one or two causes seem to be in operation; either the student is not interested in the sort of work that the high school offers him, or he lacks the necessary mental equipment. It is not often that a pupil is found who is constitutionally lazy; many children who appear to be lazy could be induced to work if the right stimulus were found, or if they were given work that they had the ability to do.

It is folly for the teacher to tell an uninterested or incapable child that he is a "worthless good-for-nothing," usually it is not true. On the other hand it is uneconomical administration for school boards to allow the schools to be cluttered up with uninterested and incapable children. And parents who insist on such children "getting an education" very often have a mistaken idea of the meaning of the word education.

MAN'S GREATEST FOES

Indolence and defiance are man's greatest foes.

By indolence is meant man's disposition to let some one else do for him what he should do for himself.

This action is more pronounced when men are called upon to think.

Nothing is more troublesome to the average man. He is pleased to be saved this effort. He accepts second-hand opinions because this is easier than to form independent judgments.

The indolent man is mentally lazy. He yields to a strong-willed man.

By defiance is meant man's willingness to accept the views of those whom he secretly considers his "superiors."

Men may be educated, but if they lack will power they are found in the ranks of indolence and defiance. As a social force they are nil. They are only noticed by vote hunters and the census taker.

Eighteen weekly and three daily papers co-operated recently with the rehabilitation division of the state department of vocational education and the Elks' lodge in the promotion of a clinic for crippled children at York, Nebraska. Fifty-seven children were given thorough clinical examination.

CORRESPONDENCE

Blairmore, March 17.

Editor Blairmore Enterprise.

Dear Sir: Re the letter of March 8th by a "Colemanite."

With regard to the statement that "Blairmore are so put out because Coleman has no use for them." This, I may say, is just what I have tried to contradict for the last three or four years; but when they take the trouble to put it in print, then, I must confess, my fellow citizens have been correct.

Why should Coleman have no use for Blairmore? Better far we had no hockey or games of any kind, if this has to be the outcome.

With our editor, I think the Coleman team good sports, but such an outburst from supposed-to-be fans can do more to hinder than to help.

It might have been better if "Colemanite" had slept a night on that statement before mailing it.

Perhaps the one who added out the slams for your enjoyment is one who has repeatedly told me of this state of affairs. My reason for thinking otherwise was an opportunity of meeting some of Coleman's town officials on business a year ago and finding nothing but courtesy and a desire to help.

Let the sport fans take the initiative and work for a united Press.

LIQUID COAL RECOMMENDED TO AID A.L. INDUSTRY

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—The adoption by a large section of industry of the use of liquid coal as a power producing fuel would rescue the coal industry from a serious coal famine and go a long way toward bringing about economic revival of industry in general, according to Dr. Thomas S. Baker, president of the Carnegie Institute of Technology at Pittsburgh.

At the same time Dr. Baker, who returned here Saturday on board the steamship Albert Ballin, of the Hamburg-American Line, from his annual survey of the coal industry in Europe admitted that he did not see any signs of a general adoption of liquid coal.

Virtually all of the great shipping lines and many industrial concerns are now bound to the use of petroleum as a fuel, Dr. Baker said, and the change is not likely to be made overnight.

While ahead he invited delegates to the Third International Conference on Bituminous Coal, to be held in Pittsburgh in November.

"Coal is a basic industry," Dr. Baker said, "and if we could help it, in turn, would help all other industries to recover. The problem as it now stands is that there is overproduction in all the combustible fields. If, by any chance, oil were to peter out in a few months, we could energize all shipping and industries of the world with a liquid coal, which could be produced as cheaply as oil."

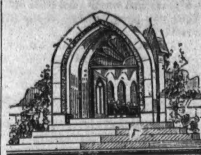

The reduction of coal to liquid fuel under high pressure steam was first perfected in Germany. Dr. Baker said that England also was now active in coal research.—Christian Science Monitor.

An exchange remarks: It isn't stupidity that makes the magazines accept such awful stuff. It is because nothing better is offered.

MEXICO CITY, March 14.—President Ortíz Rubio Friday killed a project for colonization of certain undeveloped areas in Mexico by Slavic farmers.

Smashing record after record, the beautiful 28,000-ton Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Japan" holds an established reputation as the queen of the Pacific Ocean, both in speed and comfort. Her latest accomplishment, on her last 4,280-mile trip, east-bound from Yokohama to Vancouver, was to complete her journey in 8 days, 8 hours and 18 minutes, thus beating her own previous record by 3 hours and 40 minutes. Apart from this she holds records between Vancouver and Honolulu, Honolulu and Yokohama and Yokohama and Kobe. The last-mentioned record is considered the ship's best speed performance in Japan's history. The commander of this great White Empress, Captain Samuel Robinson, indicated after her last trip that she has still more power in reserve and may well hang up another record in the near future.

Reckless Motor Driving

With the approach of spring the time draws near when once again the roads and highways of the country will be thronged with tens of thousands of automobiles and the streets of our larger cities jammed with traffic. Soon tourists will again be in our midst, while week-end trips from our centres of population to summer resorts and other vacation spots will engage the attention of the residents of all urban and many rural sections.

To the result is the hanging up another new high record number of fatalities arising out of automobile accidents? In 1931 to provide another dark spot on our much vaunted civilization with as much recklessness in automobile driving and resultant deaths as were recorded in 1930? Are the more and better highways being provided all over the country to have the tragic outcome of steadily adding to the death toll because people using such better roads exercise less care in operating their cars?

Recent figures published for the city of Regina show a very large increase in the number of car accidents reported in 1930 as compared with previous years, and what is true of Regina is true of practically every city in Canada and the United States.

A United States magazine, in a recent issue, dealt with the rising death toll due to reckless automobile driving across the line. While these figures apply only to the United States, they disclose a state of affairs which is equally applicable to Canada. A few of the facts established may well be quoted.

Motor accidents in the United States, in 1930, killed 32,500 people, and injured more than 560,000—in other words, one million victims. More than 2,000 little children under five years of age were killed, and more than 45,000 were injured. The magazine notes that the World War did not take a greater toll of American lives in battle.

Remarkable as it may seem, this magazine considers that the most encouraging aspect of this appalling loss lies in the fact that recklessness was its principal cause, saying: "If carelessness and over-confidence kill and injure so many, carelessness and consideration can prevent such losses." Evidence goes to show that the majority of accidents occurred on straight and dry roads, in broad daylight, with experienced and mature drivers at the wheel. In an overwhelming majority the machine functioned properly; the man was at fault. He took unjustifiable chances.

In a striking analysis of accident reports from forty States, a well known insurance company dispels many cherished illusions on this subject. Contrary to a common impression, women were proved to be safer drivers than men. Young men at their best physical development were the worst offenders.

Improper driving and nothing else was responsible for more than two-thirds of all the deaths and injuries recorded in 1930. Speeding, driving on the wrong side of the road, and failure to grant right-of-way, all evidence of improper driving, accounted for 68 per cent. of the accidents. Other violations of the laws as well as of common sense took a heavy toll. Failure to signal caused the deaths of 400 people and accounted for the injuries of 48,928. More than 80,000 accidents resulted from motorists driving off the roadway. The biggest single cause of accidents, however, was the improper attempt to take the right-of-way from some other traveler—selfishness, hogrhythms.

As might be expected, week-end driving is most hazardous. Sunday is the worst day by far, and Saturday is next. There was a time when defective construction of cars, poor brakes, etc., were held responsible for most accidents. Today the fact has been well established that as drivers we are not so good as the cars we operate. Men have learned to operate ships at sea safely. The records of the railroads are marvellous. Where safety is the goal, airplanes have achieved miracles in protecting human life. In other words, we can operate high-powered, fast moving machines if we put our minds to it.

What we have to learn is that safety is more important than speed. Drivers must be made to realize that they are steering three or four thousand pounds of steel in swift momentum, the possible destructive power of which is enormous.

Safety is worth more than anything else. The maiming, and the killing, and the destruction of millions of property must be stopped and we, the average drivers, can do it.

When you drive, remember, says this magazine writer, that a lot of lives are on the road, and that you may have to protect yourself against both fools and road hogs, and occasional drunks, as well as against absent-minded pedestrians and heedless children. In such fashion you will at least have made your contribution to national safety and, incidentally, you will get more pleasure and more use out of your motor car.

La Grippe and "Flu" are Spreading

"Flu" First Appears as a Sore Throat, but Gains Tremendous Headway in Six Hours

AN EFFECTIVE TREATMENT DESCRIBED

Nearly every case of "Flu" starts with a little cold. At first the throat is sore—often just a little hoarse—soon the infection goes lower—then the chest is affected. A safe plan is to gargle the throat three times daily with "Nerviline"—this will keep the throat free from germs. If there is any sign of tightness in the chest, rub on Nerviline—every drop penetrates deeply—congestion will be relieved—the cold will break up quickly. Many a dangerous case of "Flu" can be avoided by this simple home treatment.

Experienced mothers know how valuable Nerviline is for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, and the little ailments that arise in every family. Nerviline in most homes is called "Mother's Best Friend." 35c at all dealers.

World's Leading Flyer

French Aviator Wins Award Holding Five World Records

Diadonne Coste, Paris-to-New York flyer, has been designated the world's premier aviator by the awards committee of the International League of Aviators.

Miss Amy Johnson, who flew from London, England, to Australia, was given highest honors among women flyers. She and Coste were received at the Elysée Palace by President Doumergue and presented with silver cups at a formal ceremony.

Coste's only rival at the committee session was Wing Commander Charles Kingsford-Smith, the Australian "ace," and the Frenchman was chosen because he holds five world records in addition to the accomplishment of his Atlantic flight.

The committee also ordered plaques to be struck to honor Mr. Victor Bruce, Marquis of Blandford, and Mrs. Charles Lindbergh.

Dr. Hugo Eckener was designated the world's premier dirigible pilot.

Magnesia Best for Your Indigestion

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have continued disagreeable distaste, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestions, and instead, take a teaspoonful of four tablets of Bismarck Magnesia after meals with the result that their stomachs no longer trouble them. They are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. ### Hatchery Approval Policy

Big Saving To Canadian Farmers This Year Is Forecast

A saving to Canadian farmers this year of $300,000 is forecast for the hatchery approval policy of the Department of Agriculture, according to the Minister, Hon. Robert Weir. Under the scheme, 134 hatcheries are operated, producing about 5,000,000 baby chicks a year, which are available to farmers at low prices. Records show these chicks to have a low mortality rate.

Atmosphere Of Earth

Hundred Miles Deep

But Sun Has Atmosphere Depth Of 9,000 Miles

New discoveries about the sun's atmosphere have been disclosed to Dr. Albert Einstein at the Mount Wilson Solar Observatory, Pasadena, California, by Dr. Charles E. St. John, of the Carnegie Institution, Washington. The sun's atmosphere is 9,000 miles deep, compared with the 100 mile depth of the earth's atmosphere. The outermost layer of the earth's atmosphere is composed of the lightest gases, helium and hydrogen. The sun's atmosphere is quite different, the outermost layer being of ionized calcium, forty times heavier than the layer of hydrogen 3,000 miles closer to the sun.

In the earth's atmosphere the first seven miles from the earth form a layer in which wind storms occur up to a velocity of 200 miles per hour. At 35 miles up, again, one of the constituents of air, disappears. Further up there is no more oxygen, and at 70 miles nitrogen disappears, leaving only helium and hydrogen for the last thirty miles.

Unusual Operation

Piece Of Dental Plate Is Removed From Lung Of Patient

A piece of dental plate, measuring 1½ inches by ¾ inch and holding three teeth, was taken from the lung of Victor Brander, Cochran lumber merchant, by Dr. B. B. McMillan, of the Lockwood Clinic in Toronto, after one of the most unusual operations in medical records.

Four months ago Brander was seized with a violent coughing spell, and, without knowing it, bit upon the metal dental plate. The broken portion passed down his throat and lodged in his lungs.

The bronchoscope, instrument used for retrieving objects from the lungs, was used and it took more than two hours of very delicate manipulation by the doctor before he was successful.

An Ever-Present Menace

Carbon Monoxide Gas Most Treacherous Because No Warning Given

A recent bulletin issued by the Roads Department of the Province of Quebec, contains an important reference to the danger created by the presence of carbon monoxide, a menace all the greater because it may extend even to an automobile in motion. The note is well worth careful perusal by all motor drivers. Carbon monoxide is a colorless, tasteless, practically odorless gas, and is without any irritating action on the mucosa of the respiratory tract. Because of these properties, it is impossible to detect it by any of the five senses. It is, therefore, a most treacherous gas, since it can be present in dangerous quantities without giving any warning whatever.

For Both House and Stable.—There is a good deal of similarity, physically speaking, between human beings and the lower animals. Both are subject to many ailments arising from inflammation and to all manner of cuts and bruises. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is an entirely reliable remedy for such ailments and mishaps in both human beings and the lower orders of animals.

Life Insurance More Popular

People Taking Advantage Of Attractive Policies Offered

One of the outstanding developments in the recent financial history of the United States is the remarkable growth of life insurance. The application of the principle of group life insurance to institutions and industries has made life insurance available to large numbers of persons who have never before carried any form of life insurance. The individual amounts of insurance in these cases are usually small, ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. But there has also been a marked increase in the number of large policies written. In 1929 there were 88 persons whose lives were insured for $1,000,000 or more. In 1930 there were 323 persons carrying life insurance for that amount.—Wall Street Journal.

PARLIAMENT IS OPENED WITH MUCH CEREMONY

Ottawa, Ont.—History was made in the senate chamber of Canada's parliament buildings. For the first time since Confederation, a Canadian acted as representative of His Majesty the King, in opening parliament, when Rt. Hon. Lyman P. Duff, administrator and acting chief justice of the Supreme Court of Canada read the Speech from the Throne.

Despite the absence of the governor-general all the color, the ceremony and the pomp associated with the opening of the Dominion parliament was in evidence. Booming cannon, brass bands, shining uniforms, beautiful gowns all played their part in the occasion. For the most prominent in the political, religious, diplomatic and social life of the Dominion.

His Excellency the administrator, arrived amid the booming of guns and the notes of the national anthem. He was escorted to the senate chamber, taking his seat there on the vice-regal throne. Round him stood or sat representatives of the government, the army, navy and air force, the churches, the courts, foreign governments. Galleries were crowded.

In the meantime, the commoners had gathered in their own chamber, the scene of many a doubtful battle in days gone by. They waited for five or ten minutes, indulging in friendly conversation, greeting, and handshaking. Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former minister of justice, just returned from many friendly meetings from those on both sides of the House.

At last came the three sharp knocks on the door. The sergeant-at-arms hurried to open and admit the gentlemen usher of the black rod conveying the summons to the Senate. Led by Hon. George Black, speaker, the commoners trooped through the marble paved corridor to the red chamber, filling all available space and pushing each other good naturedly as they went along.

Then the Speech was read. It contained certain interesting declarations, although following along lines already forecast. The expected tariff revision was announced, but only "incidental adjustments" to present British preference schedules will be made. Legislation will be introduced to create a tariff board. This is in line with announcements made by the prime minister some time ago.

Introduction of radio legislation is postponed pending decision of the courts on the question of jurisdiction. Estimates will be cut down. Action of some kind with respect to old age pensions, aid to agriculture, technical education and highway construction was forecast. Further assistance will be given in the marketing of Canadian wheat. Amendments to the Naturalization Act and to the Copyright Act, and a bill "to provide for the more effective control of national finance" will be introduced.

The speech contained an optimistic declaration with respect to the future of Canada, and an assertion that the tariff changes made at the past session had already proved beneficial.

Having listened to the speech in both official languages, members of the Commons returned to their own chamber. A slight delay followed while the prime minister was donning the Windsor uniform and donning less ceremonial clothing. His entrance was the signal for an ovation from his followers.

The changes were announced by John Irwin, president of McColl-Pontreux Oil Company, who said all refiners had decided on the changes. ## To Assist Farmers

Government Grants For Promotion Of Cattle Raising

Ottawa, Ont.—Government grants for the promotion of cattle raising in Western Canada, were announced by Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture. With a view to assisting farmers to establish themselves in the breeding of cattle for either beef or dairy purposes, the government will pay freight charges on carload lots of accredited stock from Eastern Canada.

Freight charges will be refunded, Mr. Weir stated, providing the consignees forward to the acting livestock commissioner at Ottawa the receipted freight bill and a formal statement showing that conditions attached to the grants have been complied with. In order to benefit, the purchaser must show that the carload consisted of at least 12 head of female cattle, not under eight months and not over five years of age.

Only cattle that have been declared by a Dominion veterinarian to be free from tuberculosis or other disease may be included in a shipment and the animals must be shown to be of merit from a producing standpoint. The new policy goes into effect immediately.

Toronto, Ont.—While no direct explanation was forthcoming to explain why the Canadian Pacific should require an additional $50,000,000, if approved it is generally understood that it indicates a continuation of the company's expansion programme.

"It has been known for some time that the Canadian Pacific plans expansion of its rail service through the Canada west," the newspaper continued.

Wheat Exports Increase

Heavier Volume Is Shown During Past Seven Months Than Corresponding Period Last Year

Ottawa, Ont.—Wheat is moving freely through export channels, according to a report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. During the seven months ended February 28, exports totalled 148,094,000 bushels, as against 88,420,000 bushels in the corresponding period a year ago. Shipments of Canadian wheat from United States ports are not included.

Despite the heavier volume, lower wheat prices kept the total value down. The figure being $117,726,000, as compared with $117,426,000. Of the total, 36,746,000 bushels went to the United Kingdom, 7,722,000 bushels to the United States, and 50,125,000 to other countries.

NAVAL ACCORD IS MADE PUBLIC IN LONDON

London, England.—Limitation of French and Italian naval programs until 1936 is definitely laid down in the terms of the British-Franco-Italian naval accord, made public recently.

But even more important than its technical provisions in the opinion of the three governments concerned, the agreement brings European peace measurably closer and provides a point of departure for the disarmament conference at Geneva next year.

The accord covers building programmes for battleships, cruisers, aircraft-carriers and submarines, in substance as follows:

Battleships—Both France and Italy are given the right to complete before December, 1936, two capital ships whose displacement shall not exceed 23,333 tons, and whose gun caliber shall not exceed 12 inches.

Cruisers—Both nations agree that after completion of the 1930 class they will build no more big cruisers with armament larger than six-inch guns. In the small cruiser category they agree that tonnage of new construction to be completed shall not exceed the tonnage which is replaceable in this category before December 31, 1936.

Aircraft-carriers—Each nation may build 24,000 tons in this category.

Submarines—Both countries agree not to include any submarines in the 1931 programme, and not to lay down any further submarine tonnage before 1933.

Essence of the agreement is maintenance of the status quo in tonnage ratios, France retaining an estimated superiority of 150,000 tons.

The terms were made public here in the form of a memorandum to parliament by Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, and Rt. Hon. A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty, who achieved the agreement in conferences with representatives of France and Italy.

Work For Unemployed

Says More Relief Money Earned In Manitoba Than Any Other Western Province

Winnipeg, Man.—Hon. W. R. Clubb, director of relief projects, replied to Conservative charges that Dominion government money had been withheld from unemployed in Manitoba with an assertion that more unemployment relief money had been earned in Manitoba than any other western province. He told the legislature that projects financed jointly by the Dominion, province and municipalities had been started promptly last fall and would be continued in the spring.

This province, said Mr. Clubb, had led the way in providing jobs for the out-of-work. Instead of money being withheld, it had been paid out in late fall and winter construction. More would go to men now out of jobs when some of the largest projects were started in the spring.

By using Dominion Government relief money in constructing Manitoba's link of the Trans-Canada highway, Mr. Clubb said more men had been employed than if the province had done the work alone. A "wider and better" road would be the result, he added.

POOL ELEVATOR PROBE IS ASKED FOR MANITOBA

Winnipeg, Man. — Charges That Manitoba Wheat Pool Elevators Deprived Their Farmer-Shareholders Of "Enormous Sums" Through Overages and Under-grading May Be Probed by the Provincial Government

Premier John Bracken had before him for consideration two requests for the appointment of a royal commission to inquire into the operation of the Pool elevator. One was from J. R. Murray, vice-president of the Alberta Pacific Grain Company, Limited, the other was delivered from Colin H. Burnell, president of the Manitoba Wheat Pool.

With both the accused and accuser demanding a governmental investigation, it seemed certain that a commission would be appointed, although grain authorities here thought the premier might wait action of the Dominion government which, it has been rumored, soon will appoint commissioners to conduct a probe into grain marketing.

Premier Bracken refused comment on the letters. He said the government must have time to study the texts before announcing the stand to be taken. "I have nothing to say at present," he told newspaper interviewers.

"That should be satisfactory," said Mr. Murray, when advised that the president of the co-operative organization had requested a commission of investigation. "My charges are not an attack on the Pool by the grain trade. I sought to sound a probe on my own responsibility, in the interests of my many good friends among the farmers."

Mr. Burnell branded the charges of "extravagantly high expenses," etc., "absolutely false" in his letter to the premier, and urged that a commission be appointed "as soon as possible," to probe the allegations.

In a letter to Mr. Bracken, Mr. Murray made his charges against the Pool elevators operation, and urged a governmental inquiry. He charged that farmers were "inveigled" into becoming shareholders in Pool elevators, had been deprived of large sums through overages and under-grading to meet "extravagantly high expenses" and that the latter had been concealed from shareholders by "book-keeping devices."

The letter from Mr. Burnell to the premier reads: "I have seen in the press a letter from Mr. Murray, former manager of the United Grain Growers, in which he charges the Manitoba Pool elevators with practices which by inference are equivalent to the deliberate cheating of the members of the Pool elevator associations, and he demands you to institute an investigation into Manitoba Pool Elevators, Limited."

"These charges are absolutely false, and I am instructed by the board of directors of the Manitoba Pool Elevators, Limited, acting on behalf of the members and patrons of the local Pool elevator situation, to request you to have a commission appointed to fully investigate the above mentioned charges as soon as possible."

Labor Minister Issues Statement On Work Given Unemployed

Ottawa, Ont. — The joint Dominion-provincial unemployment relief scheme which came into operation last September, has provided work for at least 231,351 persons, Senator G. D. Robertson said in a press release. "This figure did not include the total for Quebec province but did include the number of men given work through special efforts of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways."

The reports from Saskatchewan indicate that the total number of men given employment was 78,554 up to February 28, 378,174 man-days work having been provided. In addition 14,151 individuals were given direct relief.

WORK OF IRWIN IN INDIA PRAISED BY BALDWIN

London, England.—In the autumn of this year, another Indian conference will meet in London, England—with the members of the Indian National Congress participating—to consider the constitution of a new Federal India. In the preliminary conversations in India the British Conservatives will not participate. But they will be ready to be consulted on Indian policy, nor do they rule out Conservative participation in the autumn conference.

So much emerges from drastic debate on India in the House of Commons. Turbanned figures here and there in the galleries lent an exotic touch to the scene. Lord Irwin, the viceroy, and Gandhi swept across the India stage, but it was the battle of Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Conservative leader, with his die-hards and his challenge flung startlingly across the floor which held and gripped the House.

As he threw down his challenge, Mr. Baldwin turned halfway around towards the packed benches of his followers. He would be declared, approach the Indian question with no niggardly spirit.

"But if there are those in the Conservative party," he proceeded, who would approach this subject in a niggardly and grudging spirit, who would have concessions forced from a reluctant hand—if they are in the majority—then in God's name let them choose another leader."

"But if they are in the minority," Mr. Baldwin went on, testily reassured by the thunderous cheers from many of his followers, "then let them refrain from throwing further difficulties in the way of those who have undertaken an almost superhuman task."

When Mr. Baldwin quoted from a speech delivered by Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, so-called "die-hard" on the Indian question, a dozen years ago, in which Mr. Churchill, then secretary of state, operation between the two countries, he seemed to score over his brilliant colleague who sat only a few seats away from his leader.

The subsequent speech, Mr. Churchill called "die-hard" to the Churchill and Baldwin challenge. To the accompaniment of ironical Labor cheers he declared his agreement with the Baldwin policy against Conservative participation in a round-table conference in India and, like Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Churchill did not rule out Conservative participation in the London conference.

But with the leader and Mr. Churchill followed the same path so far, they differed widely over the Irwin-Gandhi conversations.

The changing East, said Mr. Baldwin, was changing and had changed. Lord Irwin had reached an agreement, which, Mr. Baldwin believed, could have been reached by no other Englishman. It had definitely enlarged the area of goodwill and co-operation in India.

"I believe now, as I believed last year," declared the Conservative leader, "that if party co-operation were once broken the whole problem of government in India would be insoluble and impossible, and I, for one, would not accept the responsibility of attempting it."

On Saturday we handed a little girl a dime. Looking up, the child said: "Thank you. What do you want me to sing?" Replying: "Anything," the little one started to sing: "It's Springtime in the Rockies." And there never was anything so appropriate.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sessler, of Blairmore; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wariner, of Hillcrest; and Jack Griffiths, of Coleman, returned Friday last from Calgary, where they had been in attendance at the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias and the Alberta Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters.

Robert Lee, who made the talkie adaptation of "The Dude Wrangler" from Cathline Lockhart's entertaining novel, which will be shown at Cole's theatre, Bellevue, on Monday only, gets a great deal of credit for his skillful transferring to the screen of the story's excellent comedy. The dialog provides a continuous series of hilarious moments, arising from genuinely comic situations, and many of the bright wise-cracks in the film are already in national circulation. Lee's first original screen effort was "Shirley of the Circus," starring Shirley Mason, and this was followed by "Cameo Kirby." He has furnished the screen adaptations for "Silver Treasure," "The Charlatan," "Fire Brigade," and "The Dude Wrangler."

Lee was born in Butte, Montana, and was educated in New York. He is a brother of Rowland V. Lee, motion picture director, and of Donald Lee, screen writer.

Mike Radko and Bertram Jones were at Calgary found guilty of the murder of Ernest Midwinter, a Calgary taxi-driver, in August last, and were sentenced by Chief Justice Simmons to be hanged until dead on June the 16th next. Albert Allen, on an accessory charge, was given life imprisonment. The murder was one of the meanest and most cowardly in the annals of crime in this province.

The Grand Union was the centre of hilarious interest last Thursday evening, while down in the suburbs at Blairmore sad-faced hockey fans were trying to sing "O-Dry-Those Tears." The cause of these mixed feelings of delight and sadness was the result of the second game in the play-off series between Blairmore and Lacombe. Charlie Graham telephoned giving the score at 10-1 for Lacombe, making a total of 13-1 in their favor. Then there was revelry by night in Coleman, while down in Blairmore they were hanging out the crepe—Coleman Journal.

In the face of the fact that neither Blairmore nor Canmore should have met Charlie's aggregation on the Lacombe ice, which is considerably under the size required for play-off games, the above item forms one of the biggest jokes on Coleman since Canmore licked Lacombe on the latter's ice almost to a standstill. A boost for an out-of-the-district team sounds very much to the reasonable observer like refusing to patronize home industry.

The Coleman Journal of last week suggests that Charlie Graham's prophecy came true when the Blairmore Bears were decisively licked on his "undersized" ice at Lacombe. Wonder if he also prophesied that, although "no team in Canada could beat his team on Lacombe ice," Canmore should do the trick. Our sympathies are extended most heartily to both Lacombe and Coleman.

The Frank Juvenile Entertainers have been practicing for the past few weeks in preparation for a concert to be given by them in the church hall, Frank, on April the 10th, for which tickets will be on sale within the next few days. The Frank Juvenile Entertainers are a club composed of some of the pupils of Frank school, with Ross Buchanan, president; Francis Linville, treasurer, and Joan Lin, secretary. They also intend putting on an operetta in the early fall. The concert on the 10th is comprised of plays, dances, songs and drills.

A most enjoyable social evening was held following the regular meeting of Turtle Mountain Lodge of the Knights of Pythias at Hillcrest on Tuesday night, when the members of the Pythian Sisters lodge attended in a body and enjoyed a programme of songs, speeches, dancing, etc., which followed a dainty luncheon. A similar event will take place at the Blairmore lodge hall this Friday night, when a large attendance of local members, as well as visitors, is expected.
